Secretary of State Hillary Clinton has refused to correct the record with Canada as the Department promised in numerous correspondences to Mr. Almon and Senate Armed Services Committee Chairman Carl Levin.

Ironically, Almon affirms Canadian Customs and Foreign Affairs have invited Almon back to Canada and apologized, in part he believes due to losses suffered by the film industry, by tourism, and damage to Canada's image, as result of Almon's lawsuit.

Almon authored Michigan's film incentive program - the most lucrative in North America - and is now weighing his options which include bringing the "rappergate" lawsuit to Canadian court.
